

Dunaden claims a narrow victory in the Melbourne Cup (Gr.1) for Pearl Bloodstock

DUNADEN TRIUMPHS IN MELBOURNE

In a thrilling finish Dunaden claimed a narrow victory in the Melbourne Cup (Gr.1), the most celebrated race in Australia worth AUS$6m, capping a fantastic year for owner Sheikh Fahad Al Thani and Pearl Bloodstock.

Dunaden was following up his comfortable victory in the Geelong Cup (Gr.3), having also landed the Prix de Barbeville (Gr.3) and finishing second in the Prix Vicomtesse Vigier (Gr.2) at Longchamp following his purchase by David Redvers.

The Hong Kong Vase (Gr.1) at Sha Tin on 11th December will be the next target for this Nicobar five-year-old trained by Mikel Delzangles.

“What happened on the first Tuesday in November will live with us forever.”

2YO STAKES WINNING DOUBLE

The Tweenhills bred and consigned Tell Dad makes all to land the Horris Hill Stakes (Gr.3)

Tell Dad won the 7f Horris Hill Stakes (Gr.3) at Newbury on 22nd October for trainer Richard Hannon and owner Andrew Tinkler.

In doing so this Tweenhills bred and consigned two-year-old added to his impressive prize money tally of over £230,000 having won the £200,000 Tattersalls Millions Median Auction Trophy and finishing second in the £500,000 Tattersalls Millions 2yo Trophy. He was then sold at the Tattersalls Horses in Training Sale for 240,000gns.

On the same day, the Tweenhills/Rathmore syndicate pinhook Gusto won the Doncaster Stakes (L) for Highclere Thoroughbred Racing. This Oasis Dream two-year-old had been pinhooked as a foal by the syndicate for 67,000gns and fetched €120,000 at Goffs.

DOUBLE WIN FOR PEGUM

The Ralph Beckett trained Charleston Lady put up a brave performance to come from last to win the River Eden Fillies' Stakes (L) at Lingfield on 27th October for longstanding owner Richard Pegum.

The next day the two-year-old colt, Paraggi, provided more success for Pegum when landing a Conditions race at Longchamp for trainer Mikel Delzangles. Both horses were purchased by David Redvers Bloodstock.

A SIRIUS PROSPECT

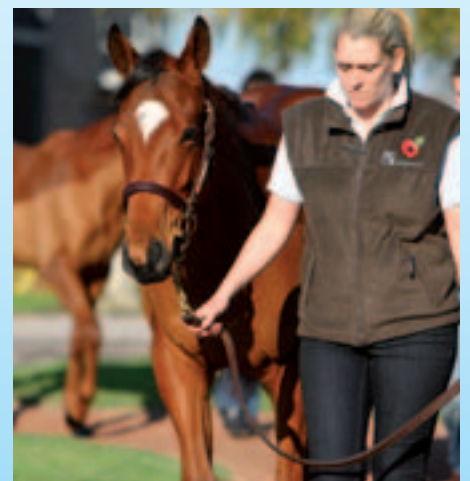

The highly progressive sprinter, Sirius Prospect, lived up to his name in winning the 6f Wentworth Stakes (L) at Doncaster, his fourth successive victory for trainer Dean Ivory and owners Mr and Mrs Yarrow.

Purchased by David Redvers at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sales for 115,000gns, this son of Gone West has progressed from exciting handicapper to Stakes company with ease and looks a high class sprinter for next season.
